John Basilou, our local barber, while visiting Boyes Springs last Sunday, met an old friend from Greece that he hadn't seen for twenty years. It was a happy meeting and John was all smiles on meeting his old schoolmate whom he never dreamed was in the Sonoma Valley.

Ole Johnson, a well-known grape man of the Nordwell ranch, made his first appearance in town last Saturday since the election. Some say that Ole has been worrying over the outcome, but his old and close friend Archie McKiver cannot notice any of his avoidances leaving him or that he will have to seek a sanitarium to build up. Never mind, Ole, cheer up, there are no more recall petitions or elections coming. Let you and I be friends again.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Mullen of the metropolis, after spending two weeks on the Weise ranch at Glen Ellen, returned to the city last Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Durant of Sonoma arrived here from Sacramento and other northern towns last Saturday, after spending several days visiting relatives.

Don't fail to attend the closing ball at the El Verano Villa this Saturday evening. A big time is in store for all. Extra music will be here from San Francisco with all the latest dance pieces.

Guy J. K. Bigelow autoed to Santa Rosa Tuesday to be present at the suit instituted against him by Ernest O. Gates, formerly his right hand man in the local option election a year ago.

The Freundersdacht Sangerbund, a German Singing Society of the metropolis, took Oak Grove by storm last Sunday and held its annual picnic singing, feasting, target shooting and dancing were in progress during the day. A large number of local people attended. A great day was had and a brass band with all the latest music helped to enliven the picnicers who had come out to have a good time and had it.

There was quite a bit of excitement last Saturday when a crew of S. P. carpenters arrived in town and started to tear up things. One excited citizen rushed to the writer and informed him that they were going to move the corporation out of town. There has been so many funny stunts pulled off here that at first we thought it was true and informed our people that it would not be surprising, as they might as well put the town right on the bum.

P. F. Arnold of Sonoma, all-around spiritual magician, ventriloquist, sleight of hand performer, king of all card sharps and also a doctor, was here one day this week showing the boys his different tricks. He amazed our community and with these latest dare-devil performances had the little town in excitement. When questioned by your reporter whether he was here to stay, he answered that as long as the game was good he would be amongst us. There is some class to our latest arrival and visitor.

Mrs. F. T. Duhring, who took a prominent part in the farce election to recall Supervisor Weise, accompanied by other women of Sonoma, was here Monday looking after bouncing El Verano babies to enter the baby contest to be held at Sonoma.

We see that the live Vineburg reporter "Easy Jim" is still on the map. Not having anything to say in the issue following the election, we came to the conclusion that he and his lady editresses were celebrating the victory. Was Viola Vineburg there or is it so that she has eloped with another? Please let Archie know so he can join in with the mourners.

Slapper Billy Meehan, who formerly resided here, made his first try as a White Hope last Friday evening in San Francisco against a big coon, was awarded the decision. As usual Willie's boxing was comical and had the spectators in an uproar. In the writer's opinion Our Willie will never do any good in the boxing game and the quicker he gets measured for a pick and shovel the better for the game and probably for himself. The White Hopes of today are a joke, omitting Charley Miller, who is the coming king of the heavyweights.

Sonoma's Historical Plaza and Nineteen Hundred and Fifteen

Now that the people of town and valley are unhampered with senseless and harmful reform measures brought to the surface by insincere agitators the past two years, they are turning their attention to public improvements, such as the Black Point Cut-Off, a new Grammar school for the Sonoma district and the further beautifying of Sonoma's historical eight-acre plaza. This latter work was taken up by the Woman's Club of this city a few years ago and its members were making a splendid progress on the same when their minds were diverted from the laudable undertaking by the cry of self-styled reformers and mischief-makers, since which time most of the club ladies have been pursuing a will-o'-the-wisp in attempting to "clean up the valley," when there was nothing in sight to clean up.

Previous to the advent of the reform agitators the Woman's Club had accomplished wonders in their efforts to make Sonoma's Plaza a "thing of beauty and a joy forever." They had erected two drinking fountains, one on the south and the other on the north entrance to the Plaza, placed a lasting stone memorial near the original Bear Flag pole, planted grass plots, one to the south and the other to the north of the City Hall, and done other things. This was more than a good beginning, but there is much more to be accomplished to put the plaza in perfect shape for 1915, when thousands will visit our historical town after the opening of the Exposition.

As the club women have already done more than their share toward making the Plaza attractive it would not be fair to expect them to finish the work where they left off two years ago.

We would therefore suggest that the City Trustees take up this matter and call a bond election to raise the money to put the plaza in perfect shape for the Exposition year. Four thousand dollars, so experts say, would accomplish great results and give Sonoma one of the finest plazas in all California outside the larger cities. The bond election could be called for the general municipal election which will be held next spring, thus saving the cost of a special election. It would then be up to the voters to say whether they would be willing to bond for this improvement or not. We are quite sure, however, with the club women to help out this bond proposition, it would carry with hands down. Let us go to it.

The Baby Show.

The coming Better Babies Contest is the most talked of event to occur in Sonoma for many months. Throughout the valley, parents are expressing gratification that the Board of Library Trustees have undertaken an effort so praiseworthy and far-reaching in its benefits.

Every intelligent mother is anxious to possess herself of a thorough knowledge of her child's mentality and physical being and this is to be afforded the parents of each and every contestant in the scientific examination to be given at Union Hall, Friday, October 17, at 2 p. m. The Library Trustees are deeply appreciative of the cordial response from those physicians asked to conduct examinations. The directing examining physician is to be Dr. A. M. Thomson, in whose skillful judgment the mothers of Sonoma Valley repose absolute confidence. Assisting physicians are to be Dr. W. Hays of Sonoma, Dr. Marian McAulay of Petaluma, Dr. Jackson Temple and Dr. Elizabeth Yates of Santa Rosa, Dr. Mable Genung, assistant physician at Eldridge, and Dr. Irving C. Gobar of San Francisco, who is in charge of the practice of Dr.

Leix. All rank high in the medical fraternity and are favorably known throughout the country.

Entry blanks are now ready for distribution and may be secured on application to the secretary, Mrs. Frank Koenig, Union Hotel, Sonoma. Children up to four years of age are eligible to enter contest and this age limit will include children whose fourth birthday occurs in 1913. Parents are reminded that a beautiful prize awaits the most perfect baby under six months old. Don't confuse the age limit mothers of Sonoma valley but remember that your little ones a few months over four years will be admitted as possible prize-winners.

The Library Trustees, Mesdames M. Stearns, A. Bates, Frank Koenig and Jesse F. Prestwood, will give any information or assistance desired in the securing of and filling of entry blanks. In connection with the Baby Show is to be a splendid literary and musical entertainment to be given in the evening. The program will be followed by dancing and a few hours of real pleasure afforded for the modest admission of twenty-five cents.

Entertainment and Dance

An entertainment of unusual merit and in keeping with the all-around excellence which is the hall mark of everything undertaken by the ladies of St. Francis Parish, will be given on Saturday evening, October 11th, at Union Hall.

An energetic committee of ladies of the church have been working overtime for the past few weeks to make the entertainment a success. They have been fortunate in procuring the services of some of the best talent in San Francisco for the occasion and they assure to everybody an interesting and enjoyable evening.

When the ladies of the parish are taking so much pains it is a pleasure for us to wish them every success and we hope the people of Sonoma will show their appreciation by a record attendance.

The entertainment will begin at 8:30 o'clock and will be followed by a dance, during which refreshments will be served. Admission 50 cents.

Personal Mention

Mrs. Wm. Wright of Spokane, accompanied by Reuben Woodworth, arrived here Thursday. Mrs. Wright will remain for a visit with relatives, while Mr. Woodworth returns to school to finish his course in electrical engineering.

Messrs. Fred Hansen, Fred Hovey, Geo. Goess, Jas. L. Modini and Louis Rouquie went fishing for bass in the sloughs near Wingo last Thursday. Fred Hansen's steam launch was improvised, but after trying all the available fishing grounds the boys had poor luck. LONG JOURNEY FOR LITTLE GIRL

Margaret Ritschen, Four Years
Old, on Her Way all Alone
From Vienna to this Valley

A dispatch from New York to the S. F. Chronicle under date of October 1st, says:

"A child attracting much attention on a liner arriving from Europe today was four-year-old Margaretha Ritschen, who had a placard stitched to her skirt of her dress on which was written in several different languages: 'Please take care of me, I am going to my mamma. Please do not kiss me.'"

It seems that Margaretha's father died in a town not far from Vienna and her mother married again. The mother went with her new husband to Kenwood, Sonoma county, Cal., leaving the child in care of relatives. When she was ready to care for Margaretha, the mother sent passage money for her daughter.

The steamship's doctor was thoughtful enough to protect the child from germs likely to be transmitted through kisses.

The immigration boarding officers found that Margaretha had only $5 which was forwarded here in care of an immigrant society. A family whose designation is 'San Francisco' will leave in about eight days and in their care the girl probably will be sent. Meanwhile she will be held at Ellis Island.

Rudy Litchenberg is Now a Benedick.

Mrs. E. V. Smith of Bardells, a rich heiress of Marin county, and Rudy Litchenberg, part owner of Boyes Hot Springs, were married last Tuesday night, at the home of the bride at Burdell's. The wedding came as a surprise to Mr. Litchenberg's Sonoma friends, who are showering congratulations upon him nevertheless.

Water, Light and Power Co. to Issue Bonds

At a hearing before the State Railroad Commission held last Thursday the Sonoma Valley Water, Light & Power Co. (the Lewis System) was authorized to issue bonds to the amount of $30,000. Of this sum the company will use $9,000 of the proceeds to refund existing indebtedness and the balance will be used in improving its system.

Bruce Weatherhead is the local representative of the Company.

Hay Market.

Somer's & Co., in their weekly bulletin report the hay market for the past week as follows:

"Receipts of hay still continue to decrease, the total for the week amounting to 2549 tons in comparison with 3277 the week previous. Grain hay arrivals have been especially light but in spite of the fact there is no better feeling here on the market, sales being very difficult to make—due to the fact that consumers and dealers are so well supplied with hay."

With the exception of alfalfa, there is very little hay out of doors at the present time and consequently very little being offered for sale. This will in a short time necessitate the hay from barns and warehouses and might possibly cause a slight advance in price, although the demand certainly will have to improve in order to realize this.

As long as the rain holds off, alfalfa continues to be cut and there is therefore at the present time large quantities of alfalfa being offered in various parts of the state, for which however there is difficulty in finding a market. There is of course some little movement throughout the interior, although the supply at the present time far exceeds the demand. The price of alfalfa is weak at present in all sections of the state and there is no immediate prospect for any immediate improvement.

WANTED—Name and address of a party in Sonoma who has the agency for the "Ostera Remedies." Address Mrs. Wm. Victor, 276 Hillsdale Street, Eureka, Cal.

COMES FROM CAN- ADA FOR BRIDE.

Dr. David P. Miller Weds Miss
Maude Clements of this Valley
Last Sunday

Miss Maude Clements and Dr. David P. Miller plighted their troth, Sunday, September 28th, at Eden Dale, the picturesque country home of the bride's mother, Mrs. A. J. Clements. Owing to the illness of the bride's brother, the ceremony was witnessed only by the family and a few friends.

To the strains of Mendelssohn's wedding march played by Mrs. Cameron, the bride, accompanied by her brother, was led to a floral altar of pink and white cosmos, where she was given into the keeping of the groom by her brother Edgar Clements.

The simple impressive marriage service of the Methodist Episcopal Church was read by Dr. C. Wood, pastor of the Methodist Church of Sonoma.

In the living room where the newly wedded couple received the congratulations of their friends, the decorations were white and pink. The wedding breakfast was served in the soft glow of green shaded lights mingled among ferns. The motif of this white and green room was the white waxen bells of the Yucca.

The bride's gown was a beautiful combination of white silk crepe de chine net and point lace. A hand embroidered net drape covered the skirt and the corsage was of heavy point lace. The veil was of the bouffant effect with the conventional orange blossoms. The only ornament was a diamond pendant, the gift of the groom. The bride carried a shower bouquet of lilies of the valley. The Matron of Honor was daintily gowned in white silk crepe de chine and carried a bouquet of carnations.

There were many beautiful presents of cut glass and silver, among which was a complete chest of silver.

The traveling gown was a tailored suit of taupe with hat, gloves and shoes to match.

Dr. Miller came from Wapella, Canada, to claim his winsome bride. While he is to be congratulated on winning so lovable a girl, her friends regret he has taken her far away to reside.

Dr. Miller has spent the past month in Sonoma Valley and he has made many friends who will welcome him if he visits our midst again. As Wapella was Mrs. Miller's childhood home, she will be cordially welcomed to the new home already prepared by the groom.

THE CIVIL SUIT OF BIGELOW VS. GATES

When Rouges Fall Out the Devil is to Pay—Some Inside Facts of Bigelow's Political Methods

In the civil action of Bigelow vs. Gates, on trial in the Superior Court of this county the fore part of the week, some inside history of the wet and dry fight in this valley came to light.

The action was brought by J. K. Bigelow against E. O. Gates to recover the sum of $712.87 alleged to be due the plaintiff, as termed in the complaint, 'a mutual, open and current account.' On the other hand Gates had a cross complaint against Bigelow in which he asked the Court to award him $3,488.73, which he alleged Bigelow owed him and which he asserted again during his occupancy of the stand was due him. Bigelow denied the indebtedness. Gates alleged that the amount he claimed was due him for services rendered while in Bigelow's employ in connection with the registering of voters for the 'wet and dry' election in the Sonoma Valley, and also for a chicken business in which he and Bigelow engaged and for other work.

It also came out during the course of the trial that the $1100 put up in the hands of G. H. Hotz, to bet that the dries would win, was put up by Bigelow. Gates testified that Bigelow at first put up $1000 and that later he drew $250. He offered Gates a fifteen per cent commission if he could get takers for the bet, says Gates. Gates at last found men who wanted to wager $1100, and Bigelow being short for the moment, according to Gates, he put up $350 of his own money, which he only got back by dint of hard work and continual dunning. It is needless to add that Bigelow lost the $1100, which went into the pockets of his political enemies as easy money.

Gates also swore that the bills for the fight in the Sonoma section were to be paid by Bigelow and Spreckels. He claimed that Bigelow hired him at $4.50 per day to register voters and he worked until his salary bill was $550. He then made out his bill at the direction of Bigelow, he says, and claims that Bigelow said to leave the bill and he would send it to Rudolph Spreckels and that together they would pay it. Gates claims that he did not receive a cent of money.

At times during the trial some bitterness was manifested and Judge Seawell said with some emphasis that Court 'was in session for the purpose of taking testimony and not for the purpose of hearing insinuations.'

Bigelow was the only witness called for the plaintiff. For the defendant were Gates, B. Weatherhead, H. Ritschen and W. W. Carter.

The plaintiff denied indebtedness to Mr. Gates. At one time Bigelow and Gates were warm friends and at the time the suit was brought it occasioned much surprise. An account book was produced by Bigelow in which Attorney Cowan pointed out and claimed figures had been erased and changes had been made. It was admitted changes had been made.

Gates also alleged that Bigelow had assigned the Sonoma Valley Exposition to him and then had collected the bills due the paper, including the subscriptions. The plaintiff claimed that when he took hold of the paper the subscription list was so jumbled that he ordered it wiped out and a fresh start made. He testified that the paper had never paid a cent.

HIGH SCHOOL NOTES.

The exact scores of the track meet will be announced in next week's paper. Due to the length of time it takes for each event, some have to be run off on Monday.

The basketball court has been changed from the south side of the building to the north side. Basketball practice will be started in about three weeks and we are hoping for a team such as we once had in the good old days of '09.

School is opened three times a week with singing. When we first started a passer-by would have thought the violent ward at Eldridge had been turned loose, but under the able leadership of Mr. Rowell something approaching harmony has been arrived at.

Cicero has received a letter from a former pupil, Katie Erickson, who left here two weeks ago and is now attending Oakland High. She is having some difficulty in adjusting herself to new conditions and surroundings, but thinks she will succeed eventually. Success to you, Katie.

The age of miracles has not passed. The tennis court has finally materialized. Work has been started on this long promised court which when completed will be surpassed by none in the county. There will be High School tournaments during the month of December and maybe Sonoma will turn out a McLaughlin.

C. CERO.

Congregational Church, Oct. 5th

Morning Worship 11 a. m.

The true riches are those that have the nature of the man whom they serve. Man is a divine product immortal and spiritual, kin with God and Jesus is his brother. How man has messed himself. You could not tell his origin and destiny by looking at him. What could he do with treasurers in heaven. He has made a circulating medium to suit his present needs in godliness. He worships it and when he must choose between God and money he will take the hard cash every time if not deliberately, yet he does it practically. Taking him in his present condition what else could he do? The trouble is not what he has done but what he has left undone.

We take it a man needs sense as well as money. Gastronomic felicity is not the only felicity he needs. Ambition to excel in the race the world runs is not the source of greatness. The true riches exist in truth and buys the truth. Evil it will not buy. The counterfeit article never buys the worth while. We do not offer a Federal Reserve issue but an issue of the King of Kings, good in every clime. You will find it current in perpetuity. Sunday morning let us hear about true riches.

Evening worship at 7:30 p. m. Every man responds to sympathy. No man is sufficient unto himself. We all have our auxiliaries. It is not good for man to be alone, was the word of one who knows, having designed us.

On Sunday evening we will show a Helper Common to all who will accept His offices. We do not have a philosophy of life, but live in a way as best we can. No need of a ship shod method of life that eats up mercy as an engine eats up fuel. Put yourself in touch with the Infinite. Let him help you in your responsibilities and do not fly the track. A man who never felt God's spirit told me that there never was such a thing. A blind man never went in raptures over a sunset; a deaf man never felt the thrill of the Hallelujah chorus and a man with no faith never saw God. Come and hear about the giver of every good and perfect gift.

Edwin H. Hart to Run for Con- gress Again

Edwin H. Hart of Ross, Marin County, was in town last Saturday with Mrs. Hart and paid this office a pleasant call. In an interview Mr. Hart strongly intimated that he would again be a candidate for the Republican nomination for Congress from this district. He has many friends in this section of the State and his nomination will be equivalent to an election in the next campaign. He ought to have been sent to the Congress at the last election, but his party was divided between Rooseveltism and Taftism, which will be obliterated next fall.
